It didn't seem wild so they were going to catch it and take to animal control the next day. The kitten came right up when attempting to feed it and rub against hand of the IW's girlfriend. Later, they attempted to catch it and when the IW put his right hand on kitten, it bit his right index finger. He then washed his hands. The bite caused his finger to bleed and was sore. The kitten was several weeks old. The following morning on 6/2/11, the Lady Lake Animal control was called and picked kitten up. She then filled out an animal bite report for the Health Department. She advised him to go to doctor. She doesn't believe it has rabies, but she stated that they carry 12 diseases.
